FSC Industry Excellence Awards winners announced

Five people received Industry Excellence Awards at this year's FSC Annual Conference in Cairns.

The Awards are a popular part of the proceedings at the conference Gala Dinner. They are based on:

- Outstanding contribution to an industry and/or FSC field of endeavour which supports the industry and its customers;
- Outstanding when assessed against similar contributions from other individuals working on similar projects; and
- Participation in FSC Board Committees, Working Groups, Expert Groups and special projects.

And the winners are...

- Henrietta Cruddas – Senior Consultant, Project Office at AMP Financial Services;
- Michael Vrisakis – Partner at Herbert Smith Freehills;
- Kelly Power – Head of Platforms, Platforms and Operations at the BT Financial Group;
- Andrew Thomas – General Manager, Philanthropy at Perpetual; and
- Nathan Hodge – Partner at King & Wood Mallesons.

About the Financial Services Council

The Financial Services Council represents Australia's retail and wholesale funds management businesses, superannuation funds, life insurers, financial advisory networks, trustee companies and Public Trustees. The Council has over 125 members who are responsible for investing more than $2.3 trillion on behalf of 11 million Australians. The pool of funds under management is larger than Australia's GDP and the capitalisation of the Australian Securities Exchange and is the third largest pool of managed funds in the world. The Financial Services Council promotes best practice for the financial services industry by setting mandatory Standards for its members and providing Guidance Notes to assist in operational efficiency.
